TRENTON, NJ—Staff from St. Francis Medical Center, McDonald's (Chambers Street), People's Bakery, and Eddie and Chris Baldassari recently joined Trenton Mayor Reed Gusciora to welcome back staff at Trenton Central High School and send well wishes to the teachers and students for a blessed school year.

Sheet cakes were presented to Trenton Central High School staff along with an engraved plaque reading: A new school building, a new school year, renewed dreams.

St. Francis' John Luchansky thanked school staff for for all they do for children, families and the community.

Caption: Pictured (left to right) is St. Francis Medical Center colleagues Sharnee Moore-Jervis, Paula Levinsky, J. Delores Baker, and John Luchansky, who presented a plaque to Trenton Central High School Principal Hope Grant (center), along with Trenton Mayor Reed Gusciora, Rosa and Freddie Rosado, of McDonald's, Fr. Carmen Carlone, St. Francis; Carmen Guagliardo, of People's Bakery (back row), Dr. Anand Kaji, St. Francis, and Eddie and Chris Baldassari.

###